

5TH CONFERENCE OF CENTRAL EUROPEAN HEPATOLOGIC COLLABORATION

Gdynia, 5-6 October 2016
Hotel Courtyard by Marriott Gdynia Waterfront

Program

5 October 2017 (Thursday)

16.00-16.10 Opening – Robert Flisiak

16.10-17.30 Viral hepatitis – clinical practice – Krzysztof Tomasiewicz, Jan Sperl

- 2 years follow-up in CE-long study from Poland – Robert Flisiak (Poland)
- Hepatitis B consensus guideline and clinical practice in Hungary – Gábor Horváth (Hungary)
- Current situation in Romania regarding HCV treatment – Romanian HCV team (Romania)
- Current hepatitis C situation in Lithuania and perspectives – Limas Kupcinskas (Lithuania)

17.30-17.40 Discussion

17.40-18.00 HCV screening in micropopulation of prisoners in UK – Ashley Brown (UK)

19.00 Dinner

6 October 2017 (Friday)

9.00-10.40 Liver transplantation – Piotr Małkowski, Peter Jarcuska

- 30 years of Ltx in Poland – Wojciech Lisik (Poland)
- Non-alcoholic fatty liver disease after liver transplantation – Lubomir Skladany (Slovakia)
- Liver transplantation in the Czech Republic – the last decade – Pavel Trunecka (Czech Rep.)
- Treatment of HCV in liver transplanted patients, Hungarian experience – Zsuzsanna Gerlei (Hungary)
- LTx for HCC patients – Krzysztof Zieniewicz (Poland)

10.40-10.50 Discussion

10.50-11.05 Coffee break

11.05-12.25 Hepatic fibrosis – Jerzy Jaroszewicz, Bela Hunyady

- Elastography and other non-invasive techniques in monitoring patients after treatment of HCV infection? – Krzysztof Tomasiewicz (Poland)
- The role of shear-wave elastography in cirrhotic patients – Jan Sperl (Czech Rep)
- High prevalence of impaired fasting glucose/type2 diabetes mellitus and high cardiovascular risk in chronic hepatitis C patients with advanced fibrosis – Sylvia Drazilova (Slovakia)
- Elastography-based methods for non-invasive assessment of NAFLD – Ivica Grgurevic (Croatia)

12.25-12.35 Discussion

12.35-13.00 CEHC activities – Governig Board

13.00-14.30 Lunch